Reading Bingo

Read beside the Christmas tree.	Read aloud to someone in your family. Maybe on a video call!	Read tucked up in bed.
Read by torchlight.	JUST READ! 	Read somewhere unusual.
Read in the comfiest chair you can find.	Read in your pyjamas.	Read in a cosy den you've made.

Christmas is coming, the weather is chilly and the holidays are nearly here so it's the perfect opportunity to snuggle up with a good book!

Have a go at ticking off as many of these mini challenges as you can to help you keep up your daily 30 minutes of reading over the Christmas break.

Please upload your completed sheets to the website. The names of all those who complete the challenge will be entered into a draw to win a book!

If you would like to upload any photos of yourself completing different parts of the challenge, feel free! We saw some great reading dens and some books being read in some very unusual places last year!
